15th RoomVent Conference postponed

The event will take place from 14 to 17 February 2021 in Turin, Italy

In light of the coronavirus pandemic and the situation in Italy, the Organising Committee of RoomVent 2020 has decided to postpone the Conference. Organised by Politecnico di Torino, the 15th RoomVent Conference will take place from 14 to 17 February 2021 in Turin, Italy.

About RoomVent

RoomVent Conference is one of the leading international events in the area of ventilation and indoor air distribution, first held in 1987 in Stockholm. The 15th edition of the conference will be held from 14 to 17 February 2021 in Turin, Italy, organised by Politecnico di Torino and co-organised by its Energy Department together with ATI Piemonte.

The conference offers a platform to scientists, academics, consultants, engineers, architects, policymakers and other industry professionals for dissemination of technical information and new ideas, as well as for discussion on the latest developments and future direction in the fields of natural and mechanical ventilation. The main theme of the 2021 edition will be 'Energy efficient ventilation for healthy future buildings'.
