Eurovent welcomes Zehnder Group as newest member

Brussels, Graenichen, 22 June 2023. Zehnder Group, one of the leaders in providing solutions for a comfortable indoor climate becomes Eurovent's newest member. The membership was formally approved during the meeting of the Eurovent Board of Directors in May 2023.

Founded in 1895, the family-run company with numerous locations internationally, focuses on the best system solutions and improving the quality of good indoor climate. Zehnder Group, as an international group of companies with approximately 3.500 employees globally, manufactures a wide variety of residential radiators, ventilation devices and systems, as well as air handling unit accessories.

Following the approval of the membership, Mr Arie Veldhuijzen, Senior Manager Research & Innovation Comfosystems at Zehnder Group, stated: "From the Zehnder Group, we pay a lot of attention to sustainability and energy saving with our products. Not only by always complying with today's regulations and standards with all companies in the group; our membership at Eurovent is also important to be involved and provide input for future regulations in these areas. This allows us to ensure that the new products and systems we develop are prepared early on for what will be needed in the future."

About Eurovent

Eurovent is Europe's Industry Association for Indoor Climate (HVAC), Process Cooling, and Food Cold Chain Technologies. Its members from throughout Europe represent more than 1.000 organisations, the majority small and medium-sized manufacturers. Based on objective and verifiable data, these account for a combined annual turnover of more than 30bn EUR, employing around 150.000 people within the association's geographic area. This makes Eurovent one of the largest cross-regional industry committees of its kind. The organisation's activities are based on highly valued democratic decision-making principles, ensuring a level playing field for the entire industry independent from organisation sizes or membership fees.

Our Member Associations

Our Member Associations are major national sector associations from Europe that represent manufacturers in the area of Indoor Climate (HVAC), Process Cooling, Food Cold Chain, and Industrial Ventilation technologies.

The more than 1.000 manufacturers within our network (Eurovent 'Affiliated Manufacturers' and 'Corresponding Members') are represented in Eurovent activities in a democratic and transparent manner.
